STATEHOUSE PARTNERS - ConnOTA LEGISLATIVE REPORT Statehouse Partners is currently tracking 57 bills for ConnOTA. Last week, the Appropriations and Finance Committees finished up their work for the session, meaning at this point all the committees have concluded their work and no new bills are being introduced. Notably, the legislature will not be putting forth their own budget adjustments this year and instead will revert to the budget that passed last week as well as the adjustments proposed by the Governor this session. Both the House and Senate will start meeting in floor sessions soon to consider the bills passed out of committees. The Senate will start by meeting in session this Wednesday, 4/10, but the House is not scheduled to meet until next week, when it is expected they will convene for sessions on Tuesday through Thursday (4/16-4/18).

STATEHOUSE PARTNERS - ConnOTA LEGISLATIVE REPORT

Statehouse Partners is currently tracking 57 bills for ConnOTA. Last week, the Appropriations and Finance Committees finished up their work for the session, meaning at this point all the committees have concluded their work and no new bills are being introduced. Notably, the legislature will not be putting forth their own budget adjustments this year and instead will revert to the budget that passed last week as well as the adjustments proposed by the Governor this session. Both the House and Senate will start meeting in floor sessions soon to consider the bills passed out of committees. The Senate will start by meeting in session this Wednesday, 4/10, but the House is not scheduled to meet until next week, when it is expected they will convene for sessions on Tuesday through Thursday (4/16-4/18).
